

RESUME

	ABHIJIT PATHAK Scientist 'D' (Senior Scientist) Central Pollution Control Board, Delhi + 91 9971566700 011 – 43102348 (Office) apathak.cpcb@nic.in apcpcb@rediffmail.com
---	--

Graduated from University of Calcutta in 1987. Worked in various fields of environmental monitoring and management since 1988.

Presently employed in Central Pollution Control Board, India, the apex regulatory authority in India as Senior Scientist (Scientist 'D').

Experienced to work in various ecological spheres starting from Sundarban mangrove to coastal & offshore, Indian rivers (lotic ecosystem) and lakes (lentic ecosystem), air quality research in India. Authors of various air quality monitoring protocols in India.

Trained abroad (in Canada, Germany, Japan and Austria) on analytical instrumentation and modelling. Internal auditors for ISO/IEC 17025:2017 and IS 45001:2018 (OH & SMS).

Engaged in Human Resource development programme in SPCBs. Faculty member for Green Skill Development Programme in air pollution field

Member of Technical Committee in CSIR-NPL – Indian Certification Project for air quality monitoring instruments and equipment.

Technical member in Source Apportionment Committee under NCAP.

Worked as a project board member in bilateral projects between CPCB (India) – VTT (Finland), in the field of development of resources in the field of emission, fugitive and odour monitoring.

Key member in apex regulatory body for organic air pollutants and laboratory development.

15 Research reports and documents prepared. More than 20 research publication. 7 papers presented in international conferences.